PROMINENT JAPANESE OF HAWAII

MR. S. KOJIMA

Mr. S. Kojima, president of the Japanese Rice Mill Co., Ltd., is one of the best-known Japanese merchants of Honolulu. In 1886 he came here as a contract laborer, having been one of the fifty contract laborers consigned to the Wilder Steamship Co., Ltd. He worked for the steamship company as a seaman for some time, after which he started a store on Beretania street. During that time Mr. Kojima furnished the Ewa plantation, through Castle & Cooke, its agents, with all the Japanese groceries and general merchandise. The managements of the Ewa and Kahuku sugar plantations, having confidence in Mr. Kojima, placed large orders for Japanese goods in his hands. With proper business instinct, Mr. Kojima made the most of his opportunities and saw that these orders were promptly filled. His business had grown so immensely by that time that he soon moved down to Hotel street, where he conducted a large merchandise and liquor store. About three years ago, Mr. Kojima transferred his business to Mr. Yamamoto, Branching out from that locality, Mr. Kojima opened a liquor store on King street, mauka of the City Market, where he is conducting a successful trade.

Mr. Kojima was born in the Prefecture of Kanagawa, Japan, and is the auditor of the Japanese Merchants' Association, having held the po-at just the right time. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., has always issued to young girls a spec-ial invitation to write to her about their sickness. She is a mother, and fully understands.

In nine chances out of ten your case will be just the same as those of the young ladies whose letters follow. LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND is what you need to restore health.

Miss Abby F. Barrows, of Nelsonville, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "When I wrote to you I was very nervous, had dull headaches, backache, and was very irregular. Doctors did me no good. Lydia E. Piukham's Vegetable Compound and your advice made me regular, well and strong. I am now in better health than ever before."

Miss Elsie L. Hook, of Chelsea Vt., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I am only sixteen years old, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-pound and your advice have cured me of sideache, periodic pains, and a ner-vous, irritable condition after every-thing else had failed."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements in female in the compound of the comp women who have been troubled with displacements, in flammation, ulcera-tion, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bear-ing-down feeling, flatulency, indiges-tion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.
